Maintenance Service – Coffee

Miele. Immer Besser.

Professional maintenance programme designed specifically for your Miele coffee machine.

Maintenance Service – Coffee

Miele appliances are designed and built to the highest quality, but it is reassuring to know that with the Miele Maintenance Service – Coffee you can have peace of mind that your Miele coffee machine is being professionally and hygienically maintained.

The Miele Maintenance Service – Coffee is a professional maintenance programme specifically designed for your Miele coffee machine. A qualified Miele Service Technician will visit your home to conduct an extensive maintenance check on your coffee machine in accordance with the Miele international standard protocols.

During this visit your expert Miele Service Technician will run diagnostics on your coffee machine and make any adjustments if necessary. The Miele Service Technician will also provide you with valuable advice on operating and maintaining your coffee machine and will formulate a regular maintenance routine for you to follow for optimum performance.

Additional Miele coffee machines in the same dwelling can be added for an additional fee.

Value preservation

Regular maintenance by Miele experts prevents faults and ensures that your coffee machine gives optimum performance.

Perfect results

As part of your visit the Miele Service Technician will discuss your specific coffee requirements and assist you to set up personalised programmes to achieve perfect results.

You will receive helpful information on the operation and maintenance of your coffee machine for perfect coffee enjoyment.
